Consent to Participate in Research

You are invited to participate in a Research study that has been approved by the Rensselaer Institutional Review Board (IRB). The IRB reviews and approves all human subject research in accordance with applicable state law and federal law governing Human Subject Research.

RESEARCH STUDY TITLE: An Experimental Study on Economic Behavior BA_SN_2024

PRINCIPAL INVESTIGATOR: DR. BILLUR AKSOY

DESCRIPTION: The purpose of this study is to examine how people make decisions in various contexts.

METHODS: This study will take about 5-10 minutes to complete, and you will be paid your earnings via prolific.com. During this study, you will make simple economic decisions and answer survey questions. We will never collect any identifiable information.

BENEFITS: The benefit of your participation is that you help researchers understand better how individuals make decisions under various monetary incentives.

POSSIBLE RISKS AND DISCOMFORT: The risks associated with this study are minimal and there are no risks to participating other than those you would come across in everyday life. However, some questions may make you feel uncomfortable. You are free to withdraw from the study at any time.

PAYMENT AND COMPENSATION: You will be given at least $1.5 for participating in this study. All of your earnings will be disbursed via prolific.

PARTICIPANT'S RIGHTS: You always have the option of not participating in today's study, and you may leave at any time without penalty. However, only the participants who complete the entire study will be compensated.

DATA CONFIDENTIALITY AND SECURITY: This study is completely anonymous. No identifying information will be collected from you during the course of the study. The information collected in this study will be kept private. Research records will be stored securely, and only IRB-approved researchers will have access to the records. Data collected in this study will be kept confidential to the extent permitted or required by law. People who have access to your information include the Principal Investigator and research study personnel. Representatives of regulatory agencies, such as the Office of Human Research Protections (OHRP), and entities such as the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute Human Subjects Protection Program may access your records to make sure the study is being run correctly and that information is collected properly.

SHARING OF RESEARCH RESULTS: The results of this study may be presented at scientific or professional meetings, published in scientific journals, or otherwise shared with the general public. However, no statements will be directly attributed to you, and your name or other identifying information will not be publicly shared or included in published materials.
